

Parents Return From Vacation; Girl Scouts Spend Night Out

By EVELYN WARDEN
DAVIS 9-4585

Home from Northern California and Nevada, are Mr. and Mrs. Jay Jensen and children, Jimmy, David and Joy, of 16112 Falda. Their first stop during their 10-day camping trip was Shasta Lake, where they spent leisure hours fishing and swimming. Then on to Burney Falls, and Lassen National Park. Rounding out the vacation was a visit to Reno and Lake Tahoe. Then the long trek home, tired but happy.

Girl Scouts from Troop 1371 spent the night in the backyard of Troop leaders, E. Kelly, last Saturday. They are working for their campers badge and outdoor cooking badge. The troop has been very active during the summer, under the leadership of Mrs. Payne, and Co-leader Mrs. T. E. Kelly. They spend every Tuesday swimming at Alondra Park.

It seems the newly elected president of the North Torrance Fuchsia Society is loaded with hidden talents. He displayed his shooting skill last Saturday at Mount Pinos, near Gardena, by bringing in a three-point buck weighing 118 pounds. Congratulations to Clarence DeCamp, 17003 Falda.

A backyard party and wolver roast was the highlight of the Alpha Society Square Dance last week at the home of Paul and Helen Clayton. Bob Richter was the caller. Those enjoying the evening were: Robert Sinclair, Bob Jones, G. Woods, W. Towells, J. Osnes, B. Johnsons, H. Cortezes, E. Collinses, C. Beedons, B. Considines, P. Claytons and Bob Richters.

Our sympathy goes to Johnny Miller, Scoutmaster of Troop 761 who somehow managed to cut off a toe while using the power mower. His painful injury will keep him laid up four weeks. His only regret is he can't square dance for awhile.

Clint and Janis Beedon, of 3487 175th St., vacationed at Barstow Flats.

A farewell party was held for Alma Farris, who with son, Wayne, and daughter, Rosemary, has moved to Reno, Nevada. They had lived here for five years. The party was given for her by Maxine Crowley, 17003 Ermanita and neighbors, Ruth Bruce, Millie Onnes, Sarah Bramlett, Connie Gastelum, Frannie Maxwell, Helen Ferrin, Barbara Walker, Helen Pope, Sally Creager, Fran Baker, M. Carter, Dot Willis and Cortez. Her friends presented her with pastel green bed linen and stainless steel cooking and cutlery set. Alma will join her husband who has been at the Mayo Clinic and will now be hospitalized in Nevada.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Merry and children Louise and Bob, of 17030 Ermanita, have just returned from a three-week vacation in Vancouver, Canada. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. R. Merry, Eric's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Boyes, her parents. On the homeward journey they stopped off in Reno and at Lake Tahoe.

Newly formed Brownie Troop 250, under the leadership of Mrs. R. Stamm, spent last Monday visiting the Oceanarium in Palos Verdes. Troop 250 will hold a Greeting Card Party at McMaster Park on Aug. 29. It will be an open house affair from 7 to 10 p.m. Cookies and coffee will be served. This is the first money making campaign the troop has sponsored, so let's all plan to attend and give them our support.

Our local talent was displayed in splendor last Saturday and Sunday on Channel 11. Pat Kelly, 11-year-old daughter of the T. E. Kellys, 17220 Delia, wearing a costume designed and made by her mother, danced and played the accordion on the "Rocket to Stardom" show. She is a member of the Granger Dancing Academy. Her next appearance will be at the Iowa State Picnic at Recreation Park in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Morgan and children, Gary and Donna, spent a relaxing vacation at Big Bear, swimming, fishing and just living it up for a week. The J. R. Allison and boys arrived to join them on the week end. Every hour was filled with hiking, boating, etc. until the big bonfire and marshmallow roast wound up the holidays. They took all of the children on a trip to Santa's Village.

Joyce Haydon, 16718 Ermanita, recently received an engagement ring from Doug Irvine. The wedding date has not been set.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley Buck and son, Mike, of 17115 Falda, began their vacation by motoring to Disneyland. They spent the day touring the shops that line "Main Street, U. S. A." at the entrance to Disneyland, they ventured on to enjoy the many rides and scenic wonders of the place. Next day they spent visiting the Southwest Museum.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Baratta, 264 Calle de Andalucia, on the arrival of their newly adopted son James Anthony Baratta.

The former Carol Wintner, now Mrs. Carol Shanklin, is expecting a new arrival around Christmas time.

Mr. and Mrs. K. V. Weeks, of 17507 Cerise, are happy over the arrival of a new baby girl.

A wedding shower was held last evening for the former Marie File, now Mrs. Don Fitchner in the home of Miss Joyce Haydon, 16718 Ermanita. Hostesses were Sharon Rich, Alice Cruz, Joan Thomas, Judy Johnson and Joyce Haydon. Many games were played by the guests. Her friends presented her with a toaster, a deep fryer, clothes hamper, table linen, bed linen, bowls, and many other things. A cake was served which was decorated with wedding bells and the names Maggie and Don. They are making their new home in Gardena.

The Seth A. Warden family spent a week end at Disneyland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rich, of 17038 Ermanita, entertained relatives from Michigan last week end. They spent Saturday touring Disneyland and Sunday they visited Forrest Lawn Cemetery where they viewed pictures of the Last Supper and the Crucifixion.

Cub Scouts from Den 7, Troop 761, led the flag salute and the singing of "America" Tuesday night at the North Torrance Fuchsia Society meeting. Following this was the installation of new officers, and C. DeCamp showed color slides of entries in local flower shows.

The last day in July was made much brighter for the H. Todd family, of 3743 W. 190th St., with the arrival of 7 pound Michael Leon.

These morning coffee hours are becoming very popular within the community. The latest of these were hosted by Sarah Hooker and Mary Rosa. Sarah Hooker, of 18328 Roslin Ave., entertained Naomi McVey, Miyeko Yokoyama, LeEtta Metzler, Sally Wisdom, Mary Rosa, Marion Torrence, Enid Rusted, Mary Espinosa and Audrey Herring.

Mary Roza, of 18336 Roslin Ave., served delectable pastries to Claudine R. Blake, Alice MacKenzie, Jean Taylor, Clara Davis, Connie Villegas, Vera Wright, Clara Davis, Sarah Hooker, Donna Slatten, and M. Quintal.

First of the ravishing young beauties in our midst to procure a new fall wardrobe is Marie Burch, who has been busily partying from dusk to dawn due to the fact that her boyfriend will soon be bound for Okinawa shores.

The August card party of the North Torrance Canasta Ladies was held at the home of Mrs. W. A. Wright on Aug. 8. It also was Mrs. Delno Hart's birthday, so she was complimented with various mementos by other players. First prize winner was Jeanne Meyers, while Wanda Hart captured booby prize.

Mrs. Kenneth W. McVey, of 3825 W. 176th St., furthered the good neighbor policy by inviting Mrs. Donald Meier, Mrs. V. J. Generux, Mrs. Alvin Simp-

Morning Coffee Klatch Turns Into Baby Shower for Neighbor

Mrs. Edward Hayduk, of 4124 W. 173rd Place, hosted a surprise baby shower in the disguise of a morning coffee hour for her neighbor, Mrs. Gale Galbreath. Present were Peggy Van Latham, Theresa Bunio, Carmen Osborn, Daisy Gayda, Marge Thomas, Harriet Wells, Beth Jackson, Mary Lemberger, and Cathy Fuller. They enjoyed coffee and cake at refreshment time while their children had punch and cookies. Mrs. Hayduk is excitedly looking forward to the birth of her fourth child, which will be born in September.

Cheyenne, Wyo., was the destination point selected by the five popular members Mrs. Jacob Romero family, of 17128 Prairie Ave., who just returned from a very happy vacation trip. Many relatives were visited along the way.

Seven pound, ten ounce Pamela LeLaure was easily won the title of "sweetest doll in town," and for further information regarding the young miss you may contact parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Weldon, at 2802 Redondo Beach Blvd.

Best wishes are extended to young Kathy Mellor, who spent most of Tuesday, Aug. 2, amidst examinations in a local doctor's office.

Best wishes of the entire community also are extended to Mrs. Henry Holm, of 4045 W. 173rd Pl., who was severely injured in an auto accident in Malibu and had to undergo a four and a half hour surgery session in the Santa Monica hospital. Mr. Holm and their three children were uninjured, but mighty unhappy about mother, Elizabeth. This is indeed an ironic situation, for Mrs. Holm had just driven to Seattle to meet her husband returning from Merchant Marine service and the family was happily motoring home to a reunion, when the accident occurred.

son, and Mrs. Willard Waddell to issue welcome greetings to Mrs. Catherine Leibesberger of New York City, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Waddell, at 3821 W. 176th St.

Thirteen-year-old Joann Rusted, of 18236 Roslin Ave., certainly has a career cut out for herself at this early age, for you should see the many clever tricks she has taught her young parakeet friend.

Sounding all the world like an itinerary of "World Travels," is the vacation trip experienced by the A. MacKenzie family of 4332 W. 179th St. First stop after leaving their home was the Mojave Desert, where the breathtaking scenery was viewed and pictures were taken, then on to visit Bill Kinnmont at his K Guest Ranch in Bishop, where they enjoyed swimming.

Incidentally, Mr. Kinnmont is the father of the famous skier, Jill Kinnmont. Then the MacKenzies ventured on to Monmath, where sons Freddy and Kenny played in the snow while father Al reminisced about 1937 adventures. Stopovers in Sacramento, San Francisco, and many other towns before heading for home has provided this popular family group with many memories for their future.

Miss Julienne McVey, of 3825 W. 176th St., is taking fair advantage of Julienne's beautiful young sister, Cherylline. The attractive matron, Mrs. Sally Wisdom, is making preparations to entertain this coming Saturday at her 18313 Roslin Ave. home.
